

Email Review: Administrative Approval of Submitted Curriculum

This email exchange documents my professional communication with Kenwood Middle School regarding the submission and review of the 6th–8th grade assembly curriculum. My initial message demonstrates ENGL 1010 competencies through clear explanation, organized presentation of materials, and audience-specific communication tailored to school administrators. The school’s response confirms that the curriculum was reviewed by counselors and the principal, approved for presentation, and recognized as relevant, well-structured, and aligned with their antibullying goals. This correspondence serves as direct evidence of my ability to communicate purposefully, respond to a real rhetorical situation, and present written materials in a professional, polished manner consistent with ENGL 1010 learning outcomes.

Dear Miss Rice and Dr. Miller,

I've attached the full assembly program for your review. Each section is tailored to meet the emotional and developmental needs of grades 6–8, with clear messaging, interactive wrap-ups, and optional pledge components.

Both videos—What is Bullying? for Kids and Stacey's Story: When Rumors Escalate—will be shown during each assembly if you approve. They've been selected to reinforce key themes across all grade levels while allowing for age-appropriate discussion and reflection.

Please let me know if you have any questions or would like adjustments. I'm happy to adapt based on your feedback or school needs.

Warm regards,

Sharon Kaye Edwards

Good day Mrs. Edwards,

I reviewed the program you all plan to present to your students here at Kenwood Middle School. It is absolutely wonderful and very relevant to the message we want to relay!!! Thank you so much for creating this presentation for our students to showcase Antibullying.

We are looking forward to the presentation and will have our Theater prepared for your arrival.

To update you, the Bullying Prevention Poster project has been presented to students and we will select students and their work to showcase for the Antibullying Rally.

Thank you again for working with Kenwood Middle School to address such an important topic with our students. This is much appreciated and we look forward to future collaborations.
